No.103 (Old NO.42-45) Amrutanjan Complex, Luz Church Road, Chennai - 600 004.

In order to encourage the quality of education in the field of teaching of Economics, Malcolm & Elizabeth Adiseshiah Trust has evolved a scheme to select the Best Teacher in Economics among the autonomous Colleges/ Universities and award a price of Rs.30,000/- every year. The Trust Board has decided that from 2016-17 onwards, the Trust may Award 2 Prizes under 2 categories, i.e., one award under the head "Best Teacher in Economics" from the existing autonomous colleges and the other from Universities.. The Awardees will be given a cash award of Rs.30,000/- each and a citation. The individual autonomous colleges may recommend the name of a teacher/s, who is/are outstanding in teaching of economics, popular among students and has some publications to his/her credit and has introduced innovative methods in teaching economics. After receiving nominations from the colleges/ Universities a high power committee specially constituted for the purpose will interview the teachers some time during the month of January 2019 and select the best among them for the award. The awardee shall organize lecture on the day of the award on any topic of his/her choice in his/her college inviting guests from other colleges in the district under intimation to the Malcolm & Elizabeth Adiseshiah Trust. Individual candidates may send their application to the Trust followed by an attested copy of the nomination from the Principal. We shall be much obliged if you can send your nominations (in the enclosed format) along with a self assessment report not more than 500 words by the candidate justifying why he/she deserve the Best Teacher Award to the Trust positively before 15.01.2019. The Trust will reimburse the Travel expenses (III A/c train fare) to the candidates who attend the interview. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.
